Turn-In of DEMIL-Required Property

- LEAs are required to turn-in all DEMIL-Required/Controlled property when no longer needed to their nearest DLA Disposition Services Site.
 - LESO will prepare 1348s to turn-in the property to the closest DLA Disposition Services Site.
 - The LEA is responsible for making the turn-in appointment.
 - The LEA is responsible for ALL transportation costs.
- Property with DEMIL Codes of A, in most cases (contact your State Coordinator) do not need to be returned unless they have been in possession for less than one year. Exception: If the item has a National Security Exemption (NSE) engine, regardless of DEMIL Code, it must be turned in to a Disposition Services Site.
- Instructions for Turn-Ins can be found <http://www.dispositionservices.dla.mil/leso/Pages/FEPMISTraining>.

- To turn-in items to a DLA Disposition Services Site a Change of Status (COS) action must be initiated in Federal Excess Property Management Information System (FEPMIS) by the State Coordinator or the LEA. A LESO representative will approve the COS (turn-in), generate and sign a DD Form 1348-1A, which will be forwarded to your State Coordinator's office. After receiving the DD Form 1348-1A, the LEA must contact the DLA Disposition Services Site for a disposal date, within 30 days. The turn-in DD Form 1348-1A document must accompany the property being turned in.
